Chapter 1 by Riggio Scoffic

"It's 3 after 8?" asked Gordon.

"We have to film this thing before 11:30 tonight,"

"Got it, You want another sandwich?"

"Just had one."

"So you know where the kitchen is?"

"Yea"

"Good, Good. You make yourself a sandwich, and you don't make all of us one?"

"Didn't really think about it."

"No worries, well now that you ate that sandwich, how about go back and do that,"

"No problem boss,"

"You want Andy to help?"

"No, I can do it myself."

"Wonderful, we'll get going in about an hour. It's going to be fantastic."

"Sounds good boss."

"Some things never change!"

"Now go make those sandwiches."

"Already gone!"

"Already gone? What a guy?"

"What you have?"

"Turkey bacon."

"What a guy."

he went back and pressed the eject button in the microwave so that it didn't beep, picked up the bacon, grabbed the toast, put the bacon on the plate and put some ketchup on the bacon before using the bread knife to cut the toast in half and sandwich it on top. The cabinets with glass doors, plates and cups in side of it. The lights were off, he opened the door and grabbed a plate one off the top then sat down on a stool at the counter. He looked up outside of the window for no reason and all. Then cut the bread and threw in the toaster, he walked over to the fridge opened it -Gordon ate that sandwich then walk around the corner where the others were building the set. "Ready to go Gordon?" said Mich. - grabbed ketchup and a piece of turkey, moved it to the plate, put the plate inside the microwave. He pressed the on-button and then walked into the living room to stare at the screen for exactly one second, after that; he went back picked up the plates off the counter and walked back into the studio. " Get your turkey bacon,"
